- Director of Early Childhood Programs

In 1997, Elise Mattia made her first gift to Brooklyn Heights Montessori School. In 1999, Ginna Rose made her first gift to BHMS. And they both choose to give every year since. That is 25 years of support for the experiences that shaped countless students' lives for the better. It might be hard to beat Elise and Ginna's record, but it doesn't take much for you to start your own legacy. No gift is too small to make a real and lasting difference to the place that makes a real and lasting difference in your children. Give today. Give Like Elise and Ginna.

In 2013, Fatima Jones made her first gift to the Brooklyn Heights Montessori Fund when Aponi started in Kindergarten. She felt it was the right thing to do. The next year, she did it again. And again. And again.

She has now supported nearly a decade of BHMS students as they've grown in knowledge, wisdom, and love. When each of us gives what we can to the Brooklyn Heights Montessori Fund, together we make monumental progress possible and move us forward.

Give now. Give to the place that gives your children so much. Give Like Fatima.

In 2011, Teresita Levy made her first gift to the Brooklyn Heights Montessori Fund when Ari started in 1st grade. And even though her sons have graduated, Teresita still makes giving to BHMS a priority.

Every gift makes a true difference! When we donate to the Brooklyn Heights Montessori Fund, we support our students in a big way. The money we raise covers everything from faculty salaries to academic needs to athletic supplies and equipment. It's not about the amount of your gift. It's about coming together as a BHMS family.

Give now. Give Like Teresita.

In the fall of 2021, Megan and Andrew made their first gift to the Brooklyn Heights Montessori Fund. That's right, they are new parents at BHMS and decided to give to the school the first chance they had during the Fall Giving Week.

Megan and Andrew started their legacy of giving. They know that when we give to the Brooklyn Heights Montessori Fund, we support every single student in an exceptional education. Every gift makes a difference.

Give now. Start your legacy of giving. Give Like The Bocko Family.
