

THANK YOU

VCU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.

Food insecurity among college students exists, and its impacts range from mental health challenges to inability to attain educational goals. Thanks to the support of generous donors like you, Ram Pantry helped nearly 500 in-need students access nutritious food items last year.

Your contribution not only helps feed students in need; it also bolsters the research we conduct with university and community partners to research innovative approaches to food insecurity. Thank you for supporting this vital program.

Giving Day on April 28, 2022, offered the university community a chance to come together in support of causes they're most passionate about at VCU. At the end of the 24-hour event, alumni, students, faculty, staff, parents and friends had made over 5,000 donations totaling nearly $2.7 million. Here's a snapshot of Giving Day by the numbers.
