

Cornell University

{First name},

Month, 2022

Every path to and from Cornell is different, but they all converge at the same point: becoming part of the Cornell family.

The newest members of our family, our current students, are navigating journeys that will lead them to do great things. But no Cornell journey happens alone.

As part of our community, you play a crucial role in inspiring this next generation of thinkers and creators. Will you join with thousands of Cornell family members and help current students continue on their paths during this season of giving? ❄️

When you support any of Cornell’s annual funds, you’ll give the gift of a Cornell education to deserving students. Your support will help ensure they can access all of the programs, research, and projects that will set them on a path to do the greatest good—becoming leaders and creating solutions to the most pressing problems we all face.

Make your gift today to help students of all backgrounds attend Cornell regardless of their financial means, stay enrolled, and experience everything that makes our community special.

Thank you for all of the ways you support your Cornell family. ❤️

P.S. Supporting financial aid online is easy! Direct your gift to the area you care about. Make a gift by scanning the QR code or type in: cornell.ly/yearendgive23

“The financial aid package from Cornell meant that I could fully immerse myself in the process of achieving my goals. My Cornell experience has given me personal and professional opportunities that at one time seemed impossible to reach.”

—Jennifer Gammond
Class of 2015

“My financial support from Cornell facilitated the international experiences where I became passionate about global health and medicine. That changed the trajectory of my career and allowed me to be a competitive applicant for medical school.”

—Efe Airewele
Class of 2020
