

Why is supporting Endicott College so important?

No matter the size of your gift, it has a tangible impact on students, helping them turn their visions into reality and inspiring leadership through transformational learning.

Like all colleges and universities in the U.S., Endicott's budget comes from various sources, including donations which help to cover costs that aren't covered by tuition and fees. Your support also ensures that the College can continue to be flexible, adapt, and grow.

Each part of the Endicott experience is made possible thanks to you and your fellow Gull community members.

How does a $50 gift make a difference?

Gifts of all sizes make a difference because they're part of something much bigger.

A $50 gift to Endicott College helps build momentum, add to the spending power of other gifts, and fund the university's current-use needs.

Every gift, no matter the size, is incredibly powerful because it

- Directly supports whatever you are passionate about at Endicott,
- Closes gaps in funding where endowed gifts cannot, and
- Strengthens the legacy of our College as a beacon where students are inspired to face challenges head-on and never give up on their dreams.

Why now?

With your generous backing, our students are pursuing a world class education so they may become an even greater force for positive change.

There is no better time than now to invest in the future of our students. Make your gift today and create a mighty ocean of supporters who believe in the strength of our community.

Can Endicott College rely solely on its endowment for funding?

The answer is “no”, and it's important to understand how an endowment works to know why.

An endowment is a collection of invested capital, which includes endowed gifts. These gifts can only be used for purposes designated by the donor, and the College cannot withdraw funds from the endowment itself.

While the endowment provides a valuable source of funding at Endicott, earnings from the endowment alone cannot cover all operating costs. Endicott relies on a mix of current-use gifts and endowments to ensure that it can continue to provide its students with an exceptional education.
