LOYOLA UNIVERSITY NEW ORLEANS

At Loyola University New Orleans, we plant the seeds.

When you make a gift, you water the garden.

Together, we grow.

Rooted in our Jesuit values, we nurture the development of mind, body, and spirit. We challenge our students to pursue excellence and encourage them to dig deeper into their passions and talents. They're taught to explore new ideas, grow in their faith, and tend to the greater community. By making a gift to Loyola, you're providing resources that allow students the opportunity to flourish.

The Loyola Fund is imperative to Loyola's financial stability

— its reservoir — providing essential resources to keep the university blossoming when unforeseen circumstances arise. Your gift to the Loyola Fund allows university leadership to direct resources to where our faculty and staff can best address challenges and convert needs to opportunities — to water the seeds that need it the most.

Give $25 or more to the Loyola Fund before July 31, 2023, and receive a Loyola University New Orleans garden flag!
