

Behind every Pitt story is a

HERO

LIKE YOU.

THANK YOU!

You might not think of yourself as a hero. But you are—because your support of the University of Pittsburgh has empowered students to write their own stories. They couldn't learn to create, heal, invent, lead and solve without the community of amazing donors that includes you.

Thank you for giving to Pitt during the 2022–2023 academic year. You've made an incredible impact today—and in stories yet to unfold in our students' lives.
