DAYS HOURS MINUTES SECONDS

Dear <First Name>,

As the clock ticks down to midnight, signaling the end of Giving Tuesday, our CoogsGiving celebration is also approaching its final moments.

If you have room for more generosity, there's still time for an additional contribution (sweet treat) in honor of the students at UH. Your additional gift has the power to create a lasting impact.

Join us in this exciting countdown to midnight, make the most of this final opportunity to be part of the CoogsGiving festivities and provide your support to the heart of our university.

Thank you for taking part in this day of gratitude and for supporting the University of Houston.
