

SCHOLARSHIPS AND UNRESTRICTED SUPPORT

Often, when alums are considering how to direct their giving, they want to know what helps Davidson the most. Unrestricted support and scholarships are our top fundraising priorities. Supporting exceptional students in their journeys to and through Davidson—that's what we aim to do.

We've noticed through your past giving that these specific examples of the ways recurring gifts can help would be of interest to you:

$75
A MONTH

Supports Davidson's commitment to educational access and excellence, making it possible for talented students from all financial backgrounds to attend.

$416
A MONTH

Creates a named, current-use unrestricted scholarship, making a Davidson education possible for qualified students.

THE DAVIDSON STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Every Davidson alum can point to the experiences that made their time on campus special and memorable. Your monthly contributions ensure future Wildcats have the opportunity to define their own special moments.

We've noticed through your past giving that these specific examples of the ways recurring gifts can help would be of interest to you:

ARTS

$42
A MONTH

Supports an Artistic Independent Research (AIR) grant, designed to support the needs of an art-based independent study.

ATHLETICS

$25
A MONTH

Allows coaches to provide scholar-athletes with nutritional supplements and healthy snacks to enhance their performance.

SPECIAL INITIATIVES

$50
A MONTH

Makes programming possible for initiatives like "First Things, First," designed to support Davidson's growing population of first-generation students.

$125
A MONTH

Supports a Student Spike! Grant through Friends of the Arts to encourage extracurricular engagement with the arts on campus.

$50
A MONTH

Allows coaches to bring their entire teams on trips where they typically might only be able to bring the travel squad.

$150
A MONTH

STUDENT HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

Davidson students' health and well-being are critical to their success. The resources on campus are growing by leaps and bounds each year, and we rely on your support to continue meeting our students' needs.

We've noticed through your past giving that these specific examples of the ways recurring gifts can help would be of interest to you:

$20
A MONTH

Funds a Soup with Substance event, hosted by the student leadership team at Lula Bell's Resource Center. These events welcome students to share a meal and talk about current events and other pressing issues.

$30
A MONTH

Equivalent to one month of counseling sessions for a Davidson student.

$210
A MONTH

Can fund expanded health and medical services for approximately 60 students.

$150
A MONTH

Gives full access to online textbooks for up to 10 students.

EQUITY & INCLUSION INITIATIVES

The make-up of Davidson's student body, faculty and staff becomes more diverse with each passing year. We strive to build a community that represents the world our students will lead and serve after graduation. Your support is critical to sustaining and building opportunities and resources to enhance the college's focus on equity and inclusion.

Here are some specific examples of the ways recurring gifts can do just that:

$20
A MONTH

Can help provide additional professional development opportunities through the Msaada Mentoring Program, designed to pair alums and students who identify as Black women.

$40
A MONTH

Can support the Emergence Scholarship, awarded through The Davidson Trust with preference for individuals from historically underrepresented populations at Davidson.

$60
A MONTH

Can support the Denham and Millner Faculty Recruitment and Retention Fund for Africana Studies, created to help the college attract and retain the most promising and accomplished teacher-scholars in the Africana Studies Department.

IMPACT OF YOUNG ALUMS

MYTH: Alums have to be well-established in their careers before they can begin making a difference for alma mater.

FACT: A monthly gift of any size adds up to ensure the students who follow in your footsteps are prepared for success!

Here are some specific examples of the ways recurring gifts can do just that:

If 3 alums gave

$50
A MONTH

It could fund the equivalent of a Career Trek experience for one student, including travel, accommodations, food, cultural excursions and more.

If 10 alums gave

$21
A MONTH

It could support the equivalent for providing over 60 students expanded health and medical services.

If 25 alums gave

$17
A MONTH

They could create a named, current-use unrestricted scholarship, making a Davidson education possible for qualified students.
