August 2022

Dear {{Salutation}},

As I begin my senior year at Mount St. Joseph University, I reflect on the experiences and opportunities that have been afforded to me through the generosity of donors. As the recipient of seven scholarships, I have had the privilege of focusing on pursuing my double major in Communication and New Media Studies and Computer Science without the added financial burden of student debt.

As a first-generation college student, the scholarships I received each semester have made a Mount education possible for me, and allowed me the freedom to devote my time to being an active member of the Mount Community. Over my three years here, I have taken this opportunity that donors have provided and embraced what it means to live with the Heart of a Lion; I am a Resident Advisor, Campus Ambassador and active member of theatre. When I walk across the stage to graduate in May, I will do so knowing it is thanks to people like you, who believed that my future was a worthwhile investment.

This fall, as students return to campus, I would like to personally thank you for your past generosity and ask you to join me in continuing to help support and shape the experience of the next generation of Lions through donating to the Mount Annual Fund. Together we can all Climb Higher.

Gratefully,

Ciara Tucker (handwritten signature)

Ciara Tucker
Future Alumna Class of 2023

“Ciara is one of our best and this opportunity is only possible with the financial support that the Mount was able to provide. With your continued support we will be able to help future Ciaras take their Mount education and change the world.”

— Dean Gene Kritsky, School of Behavioral and Natural Sciences

“Ciara is not alone: because of your generosity, many of our students can worry less about financial burdens. Your gift allows them to focus on their studies, on making our campus and communities more vibrant places to live and work, and they graduate knowing it will be time for them to pay it forward when they are ready.

— Dean Mike Sontag, School of Arts and Humanities
