Email Subject Line: You Still Have Time to Support PJF Students!

Dear (firstname),

Will you support the important work of today's PJF Fellows?

As Dean, I know how valuable it is for students to work in public interest law. It's a transformative experience that equips them for ethical leadership and service in a continually changing world.

Currently, students are working diligently to secure placements in areas of public interest law such as Nassau/Suffolk Law Services, Legal Aid, Child Services, NYS Division of Human Rights, Domestic Violence Coalition, EPA, and the United Nations, among others. Since these opportunities occur in the summer, they are unpaid. This is why your support is crucial to ensure students have access to resources that will help them make a difference.
