

jan shrem and maria manetti shrem museum of art

Dear [informal salutation],

Allie Suarez '23 has always felt drawn to museums—and having the Jan Shrem and Maria Manetti Shrem Museum on campus has served as a source of inspiration and aspiration. She especially appreciates the opportunity to work at the museum as part of its Visitor Services team.

The Manetti Shrem Museum's Visitor Services team is made up entirely of UC Davis student employees and is at the center of the museum's visitor experience. Students develop leadership skills, learn how to make art accessible to all, welcome visitors, and apply their knowledge by conversing about art.

As an Art History major with an emphasis in Museum Studies, Allie can directly apply her learning at the Manetti Shrem Museum, while receiving real-world experience within a career path she loves.

"As part of the Visitor Services team, I have learned about the behind-the-scenes preparations needed for an exhibition installation. I have also been able to assist in the process, which is an invaluable experience," said Allie, who will help connect visitors with the exhibition "Mike Henderson: Before the Fire, 1965-1985," opening in January.

When you support the Manetti Shrem Museum, you help us prepare students like Allie to be tomorrow's museum leaders.

While gifts of any size help, [SALUTATION], support from our Museum Partners at [ANNUAL AMOUNT] a year—or [MONTHLY] per month—helps the Manetti Shrem Museum remain accessible and Free for All. Partners also enjoy access to exclusive Partner events, recognition on our donor wall and early registration for select programs.

Thank you for your support, now and always.

With gratitude,

Adam Johnson
Director of Education and Community Connection

P.S. By renewing your gift at give.ucdavis.edu, you help keep our museum admission free and support our commitment to preparing future museum leaders.
