Meet Alli

Alli is a junior majoring in forensic investigation. Her journey to achieve her educational dream has not been an easy one.

Because of donors like you, Alli has been able to purchase the necessary items to get by, such as groceries, personal hygiene products, gas to go home, and dorm supplies. The scholarships she receives, along with the Pioneers Helping Pioneers emergency grant, has taken a huge weight off her shoulders and made college possible.

The support Alli receives has been a game-changer for her, as she is now able to excel in her studies and achieve her academic dreams without the stress of financial burden.
