

Spread the Love this Big Orange Family Campaign

This year during the Big Orange Family Campaign, we are asking our faculty and staff to support UTIA in a slightly different way. When you make an online gift of any size to UTIA, we ask that you do so in honor of a fellow colleague. Tell us who inspires you and why. We will make sure that the individual receives the recognition they deserve. That individual will receive a small gift and notification that someone at UTIA thinks they are doing a great job. Any size gift counts.

Thank you for not only your financial support this month but for the passion and effort you give each and every day.

Subject: Preview: Last week to show a colleague you care

Make your gift by Friday to show a colleague you care.

This is the last week of the Big Orange Family Campaign.

Make your gift by Friday in honor of someone you want to recognize, and we will be sure to let them know you think they are "a cut above" with a personalized note and small gift.

MAKE YOUR GIFT IN HONOR OF A COLLEAGUE

How does it work?

Make an online gift of any size to UTIA in honor of a fellow colleague. Tell us who inspires you and why. We will make sure that the individual receives the recognition they deserve. That individual will receive a small gift and notification that someone at UTIA thinks they are doing a great job and that someone thinks they are "a cut above." Make sure you make your donation now through March 18.

Any size gift counts.

Congratulations! A gift has been made to the Smith International Center Support Fund in your honor.

“Robin works in the advancement office and makes sure that all gifts that arrive manually are deposited in a timely fashion and to the proper account. She understands the importance of a donor and is attentive to their concerns when they call or email with questions.”
