

UCLA ANDERSON

DEAN'S SOCIETY

Dean Tony Bernardo invites you to join the Dean's Society with an investment in the students, faculty, or programs of the UCLA Anderson School of Management.

The Dean's Society is a community of philanthropic leaders who believe in the power of "sharing success".

As a member, you will be a key partner in the school's mission to prepare transformative leaders who make a positive impact in business and society.

UCLA

Anderson
School of Management

When you join, you will also receive recognition through the UCLA-wide Chancellor's Society, connecting you with a global network of more than 16,000 visionaries and change-makers!

Dear <<FIRSTNAME>>,

You are a transformative leader for our UCLA Anderson community. Thank you for investing so generously in what matters most to you at the school! <<Alumni/Supporters>> like you are vital to our success.

Your giving in <<Renewal-MRGY>> granted you membership in our Dean's Society, which includes benefits such as exclusive communications and special event invitations. We are always striving to offer new and meaningful opportunities to engage with the school, so I hope you will consider providing feedback when a member of our development staff reaches out in the coming weeks.

As we look ahead to our next chapter at Anderson, your insights, aspirations and philanthropy will help shape the school's future.

Will you renew your Dean's Society membership this year and take your seat at the table once again?

Your gift of <<Entry$>> or more to The Anderson Fund will have the most immediate impact on our campus. You can also reactivate your membership with a leadership gift to any area or fund at Anderson.

Together, let us continue to share success and move Anderson forward!

Best regards,

Antonio Bernardo
Dean and John E. Anderson Chair in Management
