φιλανθρωπία

philanthrōpía: “love of humanity.”

Philanthropy entails the selfless concern for the well-being of others. It involves acting out of a desire to help others without expecting anything in return—whether through kindness, generosity, or support.

Last year, your Annual Giving Program gift of «LY Gift Total» delivered a measurable impact to Ohio Wesleyan University.

Your generosity speaks volumes—not only about your commitment to OWU’s mission but about your remarkable philanthropic spirit. We recognize and sincerely appreciate the sacrifice behind every dollar given. Your annual gift directly supports:

- Scholarships and financial aid that open doors for talented students
- Transformative experiences that enrich campus life
- Innovative student recruitment strategies
- Meaningful upgrades to campus amenities
- Recruitment, equipment, and operations for 24 NCAA Division III Athletics programs

«Salutation», your generosity shapes lives. You empower a new generation of Bishops—equipped to lead, serve, and uplift our world. Your altruism is at the heart of every student’s OWU journey, and your ongoing support is vital to our pursuit of excellence and access to higher education.

Today, I invite you to continue this meaningful commitment.

Show your love for OWU through a renewed gift, and help us ensure that opportunity, impact, and inspiration remain within reach for every deserving student.

With Heartfelt Gratitude,

Natalie Milburn Doan '03
Vice President for University Advancement
