ANNUAL GIVING

THREE OAKS SOCIETY

Leadership in Action

JULY 1, 2023

JUNE 30, 2024

Recognizing Your Leadership

It's been an honor to witness the strength of the Carleton community in my first few months as Carleton's vice president for development and alumni relations. I'm especially proud to be here, because I believe liberal arts colleges have a transformative power and a profound significance in shaping our world. Carleton, in particular, stands out in this way.

It is your tremendous generosity that helps distinguish Carleton among our peers. Your leadership-level contributions, which constitute 70+ percent of Annual Fund dollars, allow the College to remain nimble as campus needs arise. We are grateful to you individually—and the collective of Three Oaks Society donors—for making Carleton a philanthropic priority. Your leadership to the College helps us continue to put the liberal arts in action.

I am eager to continue building philanthropic support for the College as we continue to make progress for Carleton 2033, the College's strategic direction, and I look forward to meeting more of you in the coming fiscal year. Together, we will work to preserve Carleton's strengths and propel it to ever-greater eminence. Thank you for being a leader in this mission.

WITH GRATITUDE,

DAREN BATKE

What is Carleton 2033: The Liberal Arts in Action?

A strategic direction for the next decade

Carleton released its latest strategic direction in Fall 2023. Leadership donors like you will play a vital role in the College's ability to realize these goals and priorities. Scan the QR to read through the details.

Because of Carleton Donors

The Annual Fund derives its strength from the collective generosity of thousands of Carleton alumni, parents, and friends of the College. It is only Because of Carleton donors that the College is able to meet the evolving needs of students, faculty, staff, and the campus at large.

Though every gift to the Annual Fund is meaningful, Three Oaks Society donors make an outsized impact on Carleton. Leadership donors raised more than $7.5 million for the Annual Fund this fiscal year. Gifts from leadership donors alone could provide the equivalent of...

Reunion 2024

Carleton hosts one of the largest reunion weekends in the nation—a testament to the strong bonds and fierce affinity alumni have for each other and the College. Alumni from all generations reconvene in Northfield, not only to reconnect and reminisce, but also to witness and celebrate the changes to a campus that is ever-evolving.

Class gifts are an integral part of the Reunion tradition, and Reunion giving makes up a substantial portion of the Alumni Annual Fund each year. This year, Reunion classes raised more than $2.5 million in unrestricted gifts. These funds help Carleton stay rooted in values that are central to the Carleton experience and strategic direction for the next decade: community, curiosity, and impact.

> “I’m grateful for everything you do to continue to support our community beyond your days at Carleton. I have had an amazing experience during my first year, and I can’t wait for the rest of my time to come. Once a Carl, always a Carl!”

Milestone Reunion

1974's Long and Winding Road

Members of the Class of 1974 made history in June with the largest-ever 50th Reunion gift to the College. Classmates raised more than $65 million in celebration of their milestone Reunion, including $536,296 for the Alumni Annual Fund. Though it was not the first Reunion giving record set by the Class of 1974—they hold the 45th Reunion AAF record as well—this unparalleled gift was emblematic of the class's deep and long-standing support for the College.

The 1974 planning committee selected "The Long and Winding Road," the title of a song released their freshman year, as their Reunion theme. The song's wistful lyrics captured the meandering paths that classmates traveled while on campus—and for the past 50 years. In celebration of Carleton's role in their life journeys, gifts from the class will support a variety of initiatives across the College, including two projects carrying the class's name. The Class of 1974 Center recognizes the more than $8.5 million raised by members of the class in support of student health and well-being. The class also established a $1.3 million endowed scholarship, leveraging generous matching funds from the Carleton Access Initiative. More than 57.4 percent of the class (220 donors) participated in 50th giving, and 63 are members of the Joseph Lee Heywood Society.

"This extraordinary gift is a wonderful example of what I appreciate most about Carleton alumni: their deep commitment to ensuring that future Carls have what they need to be successful. The impact of the Class of 1974 will be felt for generations to come."

—CARLETON PRESIDENT ALISON BYERLY P '15

1999 Relive, Replay, Reconnect

In celebration of their 25th Reunion, the Class of 1999 raised their largest class gift for the Alumni Annual Fund ever, giving $200,254 in support of the College's evolving needs. The planning committee was diligent in reaching out to as many classmates as possible throughout their gift campaign, and approached their work with creativity, optimism, and persistence. The 25th Reunion donors—approximately 52 percent of the class—came together to pay it forward to current Carleton students, helping ensure that every student is able to experience all Carleton has to offer.

Parents Fund Honor Roll

Qualifying Gifts

Parents of both current students and alumni contribute to Carleton's Annual Fund total each year through their gifts to the Parents Fund. Parents who give $2,500 or more are recognized as members of the Three Oaks Society.

The following parents made Three Oaks Society-qualifying gifts between July 1, 2023 and June 30, 2024. Alumni parents are also listed within their corresponding class year in the alumni section of this report.

"Living on the East Coast, we had not previously known about Carleton College. The distance from home seemed far away, but once we met sports team members, coaches, professors, and other students, Carleton felt like another family out in Northfield, Minnesota. Thank you, Carleton, for the wonderful college experience our daughter had."
