Subject: Zak, we're upgrading your Pitt experience

Dear Zak,

On behalf of all of us at Pitt, I'm excited to let you know that newly enhanced, fully optimized giving forms are now available on our website. This update streamlines the philanthropic giving process for Pitt donors like you, making it more convenient and easier than ever to contribute from any device.

While our donation forms may look different at first glance, you will also notice we now welcome Venmo, PayPal, Apple Pay and Google Pay as mobile and desktop payment options! Please note that some of these payment methods do require a specific browser.

We plan to roll out other new features in the next few months, providing the best experience as you support the people, places and programs you love at the University. Your generosity is truly what makes everything possible at Pitt, and we're incredibly grateful for your support!

If you have any questions about the new online giving platform or mobile payments, please don't hesitate to contact me or the email address listed on the donation form.

Hail to Pitt!
Jake
