THANK YOU for your first gift to Fairfield University!

We noticed that you recently made your first gift to Fairfield University on STAGiving Day and we wanted to say a special thank you for your generosity.

Generosity like yours fuels scholarship, paves the way for excellence in academics and creates innovative opportunities in every corner of our campus and beyond - strengthening the Stag community by supporting our students, and investing in the future of Fairfield.

By making your first gift to Fairfield, you join a group of dedicated alumni, parents and friends who believe in the mission of the University and help create opportunities for current and future Stags.

Please stay in touch and let us know how we can continue to grow our relationship with you – by visiting Fairfield.edu/alumni-and-friends.

Thank you and Go Stags!
